Teacher's Training Program

On the 11th of January, 2024 our teachers at the end of a two day long training session for all our branches to come together and evaluate the study plans for the new session. Our teachers were immersed into a long focused training program, refining their personal skills on term session planning, lesson outline planning, and examination preparation. These training sessions ensure our students and teachers at all 5 branches receive quality education, and set them on a path to lifelong learning.

At Oxford International School, we firmly believe that quality education is not just about imparting information but also about nurturing critical thinking, creativity, and a lifelong love for learning. These training sessions play a vital role in achieving this goal by empowering our teachers to inspire and motivate students to reach their full potential. Moreover, these programs are instrumental in fostering a culture of continuous improvement and professional development among our faculty members.

OIS Movie Show

Oxford International School organized a three day long event for joy and laughter, as students from all sections came together for a memorable cinema experience at our school auditorium and saw their favorite movies. Watching movies provides a dynamic and immersive avenue for learning, allowing audiences to delve into diverse narratives, cultures, and perspectives from the comfort of their own homes. Through captivating visuals, compelling storytelling, and nuanced character portrayals, movies offer valuable insights into historical events, societal issues, and human emotions. Whether it's unraveling complex plotlines, deciphering character motivations, or analyzing thematic elements, the cinematic experience stimulates critical thinking and fosters a deeper understanding of the world around us. Moreover, by engaging multiple senses, including sight and sound, films cater to different learning styles, making learning both enjoyable and accessible to a wide audience.

TaeKwondo classes along with academics to foster them in physical fitness

Here at Oxford International School, our kids take part in TaeKwondo classes along with academics to upbring them in physical fitness, discipline, and self-defense, empowering our kids with valuable life skills. Moreover, TaeKwondo empowers our students with self-defense techniques, equipping them with the confidence and ability to protect themselves if the need arises. This sense of empowerment not only boosts their self-esteem but also promotes a greater sense of personal safety and security.

Here at Oxford International School by adding TaeKwondo classes into our curriculum, we aim to provide our students with a well-rounded education that prepares them for success in all aspects of life. This also helps them show their proactiveness and take part in extracurricular activities, which goes a long way in highlighting their educational potential when going abroad.

OIS BizBrainer League Season 1

On the 29th of January, 2024, the students of Oxford international School took the stage by storm as they all came together in groups and participated in the BizBrainer League Season 1, presenting new ideas and marketing strategies for businesses. BizBrainer League is an Intra School competition where our young and future entrepreneurs face off against each other to see who has the best take on how to strategies a business. The event took place in our Dhanmondi Campus Auditorium. Special thanks to the esteemed guests CEO and Founder of Tars Industries, CEO of Oxford International School, Executive Director of OneICT, and Vice Principal of Senior School of Oxford International School - for graciously handing over the prize money and crests to the winners.

OIS Dress as you wish Competition

Oxford International School, our kids embrace their individuality for dress as you wish competition. Our students spread smiles across the campus as they dressed as they wished and embraced individuality. Students dressed as doctors, teachers, school bus, superheroes and much more and uplifted the mood of the campus with their presence. The spirit of individuality didn't end there. As the school year progressed, anticipation grew for the Annual Sports 2024 event, where once again, our students would have the opportunity to showcase their unique style and flair. With the same enthusiasm and joy for self-expression, they eagerly prepared to take the field dressed up as they wished in their chosen attire, ready to unite in the joy of friendly competition while celebrating their diverse interests and passions.

Bangladesh's Independence Day Celebration

On the occasion of Bangladesh's Independence Day, Oxford International School echoed with pride and respect as students, teachers, and staff commemorated the nation's hard fought freedom. Through various events and activities, Oxford International School not only celebrated the historic significance of March 26th but also instilled a sense of patriotism and unity among its students.Our honorable Principal, Dr. M Nurun Nabi and CEO, Mohammad Abu Kayes Jahadi, presented the students with certificates for their performances showcasing the rich heritage of Bangladesh. Our respectful teachers also delivered speeches highlighting the struggles of the independence movement to the resilience and spirit of the nation.

OIS Chef's Club with their bakery!

Our Young chef's from OIS Chef's Club baked a cake for their respective teachers and cut it to celebrate with them and their friends. More than just a club, the Chef's Club is a way to a lifetime of culinary curiosity and exploration. It instills in our students at Oxford International School the passion for cooking, a respect for food, and the confidence to experiment and create in the kitchen and beyond. And as they carry these lessons with them into the world, they become not just skilled chefs, but mindful stewards of their own well-being and the world around them. This also counts as not only a great hobby but an extracurricular activity that goes beyond.

Art Competition for Children's Day

Oxford International School hosts an inspiring art competition, for the students to let their imagination run wild and paint their dreams onto canvas as they celebrate the birthday of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and Children's Day. It serves as a platform for young artists to unleash their inner visionaries, transcending boundaries and expressing their dreams on canvas. This fusion of celebration and artistic expression not only honors the legacy of Bangabandhu but also empowers children to explore their artistic talents and cultivate a lifelong passion for creativity. Moreover, engaging in artistic activities promotes confidence and self-esteem, empowering children to embrace their unique perspectives and celebrate their individuality. Through art, children discover the beauty of diversity and the power of self-expression, laying the foundation for a lifetime of personal growth, empathy, and cultural appreciation.

School's Green Club of Nursery!

On the 10th of March, 2024 at Oxford International School's Green Club of Nursery, our kids from Junior School were taught about the importance of trees and plantation to help them in understanding nature and instilling a sense of responsibility for our environment. Trees and plantations transcends mere aesthetics; they are the lungs of our planet, tirelessly purifying the air we breathe by absorbing carbon dioxide and releasing life-giving oxygen. Beyond their role in combating climate change, trees provide vital habitats for countless species of plants and animals, preserving biodiversity and maintaining ecological balance. Moreover, they act as natural barriers, mitigating the impact of natural disasters such as floods and landslides, while also offering shade, conserving water, and enriching soil fertility. From their roots to their lofty canopies, trees embody resilience, strength, and beauty, serving as timeless symbols of life, growth, and interconnectedness. In essence, the importance of trees cannot be overstated.

Empathy in Action: OIS Students Extend Warmth to Street Children

In a heartwarming event that took place this winter, students from Oxford International School, Old Dhaka Campus collaborated with 'Shawpno Pathsala,' an organization that is committed to performing volunteer work. On the 2nd of January, 2024 our students came together to make a difference. Together, they made an effort to provide assistance to children living on the streets who were experiencing the severe cold.

Regardless of the chilly weather, students from OIS graciously gave winter clothing and supplied meals to the children who were in need. The association with 'Shawpno Pathsala' served to amplify the impact, thereby demonstrating the positive effects of community compassion. Shwapno Pathsala was delighted to have the opportunity to collaborate with students of Oxford and have volunteers from our school to serve the community.

Not only did this programme provide joy to individuals who were in need, but it also taught the kids important lessons about the need of being good to others and volunteering in their communities. This exemplifies how education goes beyond the confines of the classroom and transforms individuals into responsible members of society.

Ramadan Charity by Social Club

In this blessed month of Ramadan, the Oxford International School Social Service Club organized a special event: Ramadan Charity. This aims to encourage empathy for the less fortunate and emphasize the significance of charity, promoting equality and kindness among our students. As we strive to cultivate empathy in the next generation, we recognize that true education extends beyond academics—it encompasses compassion and understanding. This initiative not only underscores the importance of empathy but also serves as a beacon of hope, uniting our school community in the spirit of giving and solidarity. Through acts of charity and kindness, we not only alleviate the burdens of the less fortunate but also instill values of empathy and social responsibility in our students, empowering them to become compassionate leaders of tomorrow. Together, let us continue to uphold the principles of generosity and inclusivity, embodying the true essence of Ramadan and making a meaningful impact in the lives of others.
